

I can't believe you want to remove a valuable service from the satellite radio. I live in New Hampshire and the local radios stations have traffic, but it is not effective. The traffic reports are behind

This is one area the FCC should keep its hands off. It's not like the Super Bowl half-time show

Thank You

James Graham